IMPACTING THOUSANDS IN KENYA

Dan just spent 10 days in Kenya, where God has opened the door for The Way of Truth Ministries to have a tremendous impact for the gospel of Jesus Christ. We are planning a three-day conference in October for one thousand pastors, two days of training for over two hundred chaplains of governmental agencies, and a breakfast for government officials and civic leaders in the city of Nairobi.

Over the next few months, Dan will continue working with a group of leaders from the AIC church in Kenya and the International Leadership University of Nairobi to organize these events. Key speakers at the conference will be David Kistler, George Barna, Sam Rohrer, and others.

Our goal is to follow up on this conference with a citywide evangelistic crusade in Nairobi in 2025. We look forward to openly sharing the gospel with thousands of Kenyans!

NEW MINISTRY ROLE WITH A GLOBAL IMPACT

Dan was recently appointed to the position of “Associate Director of International Ministries” for The Way of Truth Ministries. This appointment will not end our work in the Dominican Republic, but it will change our role in the ministry there going forward. Dan will now be charged with overseeing ministries in the Dominican Republic, Kenya, Liberia, Ghana, Togo, Ivory Coast, Burkina Faso, and India.

The ministries in each of these countries are led by national missionaries. These are godly men who are committed to fulfilling the great commission in their own country and reaching their own with the gospel of Jesus Christ. WOTM partners with these men by providing the necessary resources to fulfill their call. WOTM’s ministry in these countries includes 70 national missionaries, multiple Bible colleges and Christian schools, ministry to military personnel, ministry to chaplains, ministry to truckers, and a Christian radio station. Our goal is to empower the national church worldwide to fulfill their role in the great commission. Dan’s role is to provide encouragement, resources, strategic partnerships, and accountability for those on the front lines.

WHAT ABOUT THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC?

Our call to service in the Dominican Republic was very clear and continues to be very clear. God called us to assist the Dominican Church in making the transition from churches that relied on foreign missionaries to do the work to churches that are equipping, sending, and supporting their own in fulfilling the Great Commission. That process has begun, and in our absence, Dominicans have stepped up to fill the void in each of the ministries we were involved in.

Dan flew down and met with the pastors of the Santiago Churches last week, and they expressed their readiness to fully accept the baton. We are now in the process of handing over the church planting ministry we started (Koinonos) into Dominican hands. In Dan's new role with WOTM, he will continue to partner with the now Dominican-led Koinonos church planting ministry in the Dominican Republic.

The fact that we do not have full support and are both working will limit the amount of time we can spend in the Dominican Republic and the other countries that are part of WOTM's international ministry. However, once we have raised the necessary financial support, we anticipate spending several months out of the year in the Dominican Republic as well as traveling to the other countries where WOTM has ministries.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING NOW?

Barb is working full-time in a doctor's office in Tyrone, PA. She is serving as part of the WOTM home office ministry team and is increasingly getting involved in the ministry of Faith Baptist Church of Altoona. She has also had the privilege of discipling one of her co-workers. Her full-time job limits her ability to travel with Dan, but she continues to play a critical role in keeping the ministry afloat.

Dan's last Sunday as interim pastor of First Baptist Church of York is February 25th. He has cherished the opportunity to serve the Lord and this dear congregation, but it is time to focus on this next chapter of ministry with WOTM. Whenever he is not traveling, Dan will be working part-time on a local PA farm.

Ministry travel plans already scheduled for this year:

February 28 - March 18:	Dan will be traveling down south to visit supporters and churches in TN, LA, FL, SC, & NC
July 16 - August 26:	Dan will be in the Dominican Republic hosting four work teams.
October 3 -11:	Project Kenya
November 8-19:	Possible trip back to the Dominican Republic

We continue to be grateful for your prayers, support, and encouragement. You are a vital part of our ministry, and we recognize that we could not do this without you. We covet your continued prayer, support, and encouragement.

In His Service,
Dan & Barbara Woodring
